Extra Session April 2 May Declare War

EXPEDITIONARY FORCE IS URGED BY ROOSEVELT

HUGHES DECLARES ATTACKS AN ASSAULT ON LIBERTY

Famous Union Club Adopts Warlike Resolution at New York

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, March 21.—"This club asks the American people to face the fact that war with this country now exists by the act of Germany, and that the whole united weight of American loyalty must be concentrated upon effective governmental action."

This was the concluding clause of a resolution adopted last night by the Union League Club at one of the most warlike meetings in the history of this famous organization. It was the burden of speeches delivered by four leaders of the Republican party, Theodore Roosevelt, Charles E. Hughes, Elihu Root and Joseph H. Choate.

"Let us not delude ourselves," said Mr. Hughes. "Germany is now making war upon the United States, making war with a ruthless barbarity. I regard these attacks, the method of their conduct, as an onslaught on liberty and on civilization itself."

In a speech along similar lines Colonel Roosevelt said:

"We are in war now. If the sinking of our ships and the killing of our citizens was not war then the sinking of the Lusitania and the sinking of the Sussex would not be war. We can perfectly well send an expeditionary force abroad now to fight in the trenches or fight in the Balkan peninsula, wherever it is desired. We can get the expeditionary force, if we choose to, within four or five months into the trenches, and it will mean everything for the morale of France, of Belgium, of the allies generally."

Colonel Roosevelt said that he hoped to see this country raise an army of two million men, "so that if the war lasts for a year we will be able to be the decisive and controlling element in it."

"America Learns to Keep Ships in Port," Is Germany's Challenge

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Amsterdam, via London, March 21.—Count Von Reventlow, writing in the Deutsche Tages Zeitung says that with reference to the sinking of the American steamer City of Memphis, Illinois and Vigilance:

It is good that American ships have been obliged to learn that the German prohibition is effective and that there is no question of distinctive treatment for the United States. In view of such losses there is only one policy for the United States, as for the small European maritime powers, namely, to retain their ships in their own ports as long as the war lasts.

The Dusseldorfer General Anzeiger says that the sinking of three American ships is certain to produce especial satisfaction.

The manifesto grants comprehensive amnesty to all political prisoners. It also provides for the early convocation of the Finnish diet.

ST. QUENTIN IS WITHIN REACH OF THE ALLIES

Germans Believed to Have Reached Line Where Stand Will Be Made

FRENCH IRON MINES ARE THREATENED BY ADVANCE

Incendiary Fires Burning Behind German Line Indicate Further Retreat

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, March 21.—St. Quentin, reputed headquarters of the German emperor and his general staff for the two years following the battle of the Marne, is today within sight of the French infantry, who are following fast on the heels of the retreating German army. Twelve miles to the south French troops are also looking down upon La Fere and are within reach of the German heavy guns if the invaders have really elected to hold the famous Hindenburg line, running from Lille to Laon.

So far there is no evidence that the German retreat has halted, such facts as are known indicating the contrary. La Fere is supposed to be one of the corner stones of the Hindenburg line, yet General Nivelle has been able to occupy Tergnier, less than two miles from La Fere, apparently without encountering serious resistance. Tergnier is an important railroad junction from which three roads branch north to La Fere, a second southwest to Noyon, and a third northwest to St. Quentin. Even more significant is the fact that the British, advancing on the north against Cambrai, another vital point on the Hindenburg line, have seen incendiary fires blazing in the rear of that town.

The only fact to offset these evidences that the Germans are still retreating is that the advance of both British and French materially slackened yesterday. This is officially explained as due to an equinoctial gale which swept over the blackened wilderness in which the opposing armies are maneuvering. The British, whose advance has been constantly slower than that of the French, are still an appreciable distance from Cambrai, their nearest outpost being about 12 miles from that city. The great importance of Cambrai lies in the fact that it is the principal barrier between the allies and the great French coal and iron field around Valenciennes, 20 miles further on. These fields have been in the possession of the Germans since the first sweep through Belgium.

While uncertainty still reigns as to the outcome of the great drama being staged in Picardy the Germans continue their efforts to create a diversion in the region of Verdun but so far nothing has developed to indicate that a major operation is under way. The most important fighting reported from any other theatre is from the long quiescent Macedonian front. Here the fighting between the Bulgarian-Turkish forces and General Sarrail's French troops has been steadily growing in.

CUBAN REBELS TO BURN SUGAR CANE; WAGE WAR OF RUIN

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
San Juan, P. R., March 21.—(Staff telegraph.)—Early estimates made by Cuban planters indicated that the rebellion against the General administration would be over the island by the end of the year.

If the rebels make good their threats of a general strike, the short crop will be further increased. A thousand of men are already working in the fields and mills will be forced to burn cane or burn the machinery.

General Riquelme, the Cuban commander in chief of the national army, was evacuated from San Juan when the American forces were landed. He has declared he and his followers will fight every cane field they can find. It was only with difficulty that he was overpowered and arrested.

Among the lost was Alexander Rodriguez, a Porto Rican, while the others represented a number of nationalities.

Consul-General Skinner also received word today of the safe arrival at Glasgow of Captain Borum and the eight missing members of the crew of the American steamer City of Memphis, who were picked up after having been 18 hours in an open boat.

Industrial and Military Forces Being Mobilized

President's Proclamation Declares Grave Questions of National Importance Require the Attention of Congress and Orders the Session to Open April 2

ACTUAL WAR DEPENDS UPON KAISER'S ACTS

Cabinet Thoroughly United On Decision That Extra Session Was Necessary—Defense of Nation Now Up to Navy and Submarine Chasers, Badly Needed In Warfare Against German Menace—Volunteer Army of 500,000 Men May Be Called—Half Billion Dollars Appropriation Needed

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, March 21.—President Wilson, recognizing that Germany practically is making war on the United States on the seas, today called congress to assemble in extraordinary session on April 2 to deal with the situation.

The purpose of the session—now called two weeks earlier than the date first set—as announced in the president's proclamation, is to receive a communication on "grave questions of national policy."

The President's proclamation follows: "Whereas public interests require that congress of the United States should convene in extra session at 12 o'clock noon, on the second day of April, 1917, to receive a communication concerning grave matters of national policy; which should be taken immediately under consideration."

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordinary session of the congress of the United States to convene in extra session at the capital in the city of Washington on the second day of April, 1917, at 12 o'clock noon, of which all persons who shall at that time be entitled to act as members thereof are hereby required to take notice.

"Given under my hand and the seal of the United States of America the 21st day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and of the independence of the United States the 41st."

The president in his address to congress will detail how Germany practically has been making war on the United States by ruthless destruction of American lives and ships on the high seas in contravention of all the laws of nations and humanity.

Congress then is expected to pass a resolution declaring that a state of war has existed between the United States and Germany for some time.

Such a resolution in itself will not be a declaration of war in a technical sense, although it will amount to the same thing.

As a consequence the United States will take further steps to protect its interests on the high seas and elsewhere against the warlike acts of Germany and whether an actual state of war will come to exist in its full sense will depend on the future acts of the imperial German government.

Since last Sunday when the American ships were sunk off the British Isles in quick succession, with loss of American lives, bringing the total number of Americans lost through German submarine operations to more than 200, the President and all his advisers have recognized that a state of war existed. From all parts of the country have come calls for the immediate summoning of congress in extra session.

Although the President by the provisions of the constitution must leave it to congress to make the practical declaration of war such advice as have come to the White House from members of congress.

governors of states, public officials and many hundreds of citizens have contained statements of support of such a policy in its fullest sense.

The cabinet, which urged the move upon the President at yesterday's session is described by its members as having been more thoroughly united than it has been on any other question that has come before it.

The nation now actually comes to the point which all the history of centuries indicated must necessarily follow: the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany February 3. When the President on that day.

DEMAND FOR BEAN SEEDS ABOVE NORMAL

Boston, March 21.—New England gardeners are rallying around the bean. Three big seedsmen said today that the demand for seeds this season was far above normal and that bean leads all competitors. One dealer estimated the call for seeds as being from 50 to 100 per cent. above normal.

PEACE CRANKS ARE AFTER GEN. WOOD FOR WAR SPEECHES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, March 21.—The emergency peace federation in a statement issued today supports Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Leland Stanford University in his protest to the war department against recent speeches of Major General Leonard Wood. "It was not one speech, but a number of them, made by General Wood," says the federation, "which we think highly improper for an officer in active service. Some time ago in California General Wood made speeches advocating preparedness against possible war with Japan."

General Wood in reply says that his recent speech at the economic club dinner here, which is supposed to have called forth these protests, made no reference to war with any country. "It was simply a protest," said the general, "against the individualistic views of certain speakers who had preceded me. I haven't spoken in California since 1912 and then no reference was made to possible war with Japan."

About Red Cross Work.

Mrs. Wood's position in Cuba when the general was military governor of the island was unique, and her opportunity to observe conditions and to study the character of the Cubans as individuals a rare one. Here is what she once said about the Cubans:

"They are a very good sort of people indeed, only in the United States they are not understood. Among the educated are as charming men and women as one would meet anywhere. And their feeling toward the United States is extremely friendly. Indeed, it is more than that, because there is a sincere gratitude at the bottom of it. But how can they feel otherwise after all that our government has done for them?"

It is easy to believe the testimony of travelers that Mrs. Wood was a thoroughly tactful hostess in her Santiago home. Above all, she is a devoted admirer of her husband.

Mrs. Wood's personality is all her own, while her social adaptability is doubtless partly due to her training as a girl in the social life of Washington's diplomatic circles.

Mrs. Wood has many points of personal attraction. She is tall, with a strongly built figure that suggests athletic tastes; her face in repose is keenly intelligent and when she smiles is most attractive; she has good, honest gray eyes and plenty of soft, reddish brown hair.

It is probably because of Mrs. Wood's force, determination and executive capacity that the report of her being an accomplished medical student arose in Cuba. She declares, however, that she has had no medical training, is not a college woman and has never considered a profession of any sort.

In the cut Mrs. Wood wears a sterilized gown, worn as she made bandages for the New York division of the Red Cross.

To Keep Liquids.

Grape juice, ginger ale, fruit juice or any kind of liquid of like nature may be kept for any period if laid upon its side or placed bottom up. Thus if the liquid covers the cork, the moisture will keep the cork expanded and there will be no room for the air to find its way in and ruin it.

To remove stains from earthenware dishes and plates caused by putting them in the oven, soak in strong borax and hot water.

To ship a mirror without breaking the glass, paste narrow strips of paper diagonally across the glass. This breaks the vibration and prevents the damage that often results.

When weighing molasses for cooking purposes, flour the scale well and the molasses will run off quite easily.

Mock Pin Tucks.

For use on children's clothes, lingerie or fine blouses a good imitation of pin tucking may be obtained by machine stitching. It is necessary to use about a No. 3 thread in the bobbin and as fine a thread as 100 in the needle. Stitch the material on the wrong side, letting the coarse thread come on the right. It is this coarse thread which looks like the pin tuck, and it is ever so much easier to do. It might be a good idea to loosen the bobbin screw very slightly in doing this work.

Spanish Macaroni.

A meat substitute. Fry onions in a bit of butter and olive oil until brown; add a tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce and a tablespoonful of chili powder. Put a half cupful of macaroni into boiling water, salted, and cook until tender, about twenty-five minutes. Place the drained macaroni in a buttered baking dish and pour the onions and half a can of tomatoes over it. Mix well and sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake a half hour in a moderate oven.

Many a man borrows trouble by not paying his debts.

DRAPED SKIRTS.

The Peg Top Has Brought
In Tassels and Jackets.

The really, truly newest yet in silhouette is that affected by the draped skirt, worn with flowing sleeves, ball tassel sash ends and wide spreading hat.

How this type of skirt is devised is interesting. It looks like a straight, rather narrow skirt, cut extra long, then just looped up on each side to shorten it to the required length, giving a puffed effect that somewhat resembles the barrel, the peg top, or whatever you care to call the side inflated appearance of some of the new skirts.

Tassels form the finish for the draping of these skirts, and the effect is really pleasing, especially when the fabric is one that drapes softly.

An interesting model of this type recently seen was a fine dress serge, decorated with a twelve inch banding of hand embroidery, done in a contrasting color, the tassels being of the embroidery color.

Following in the trend of the draped skirt is the flounce skirt, with a close fitting under or drop foundation. And then the long, tunic skirt, with flaring pockets on each hip.

Then there is the straight, gathered skirt, flaring at the hem; then a straight line skirt, not more than two yards and many times less than this, with a short, full tunic, either plaited or gathered.

Some straight skirts have a cute little apron tunic, plaited and set across the front of the skirt. Other straight skirts have an apron tunic effect back and front, the back apron being longer than the front.

Next comes, quite as a matter of course, the perfectly slim, straight skirt, close and trim and fashionably short, a fitting mate for the slim, straight jacket with which it is designed to be worn.

Some Hints to Guide You
In the Clean Up Campaign

HERE are some hints for clean up week: Carpets, rugs and matting should all be taken up and thoroughly cleaned and the floors and woodwork scrubbed. Soap, hot water and a little washing soda and the scrub brush are the howiters which successfully can combat the common enemy—dust. Invade every hiding place in the kitchen where filth may accumulate. Plug up the rat and mice holes; putty and paint the cracks where vermin may propagate.

The cellar should receive a special cleaning.

A fresh coat of whitewash applied to the walls will add freshness and brightness to its appearance. Inspect the plumbing and keep the pipes clear of rubbish heaps. Notify the local department of health of leaks from neighboring premises which are injuring your property and endangering the health of your family.

Gather all the tin cans, discarded and broken bottles and boxes from the back yard and alley. Pull up the weeds and prepare the soil for the growth of flowers, plants and vegetables. The humblest home may be made attractive by a garden display.

Do not throw the collected waste into the back alley or on to vacant lots, to be scattered by the wind. Put all the refuse in covered receptacles and then place these near the street curb on the regular collecting days to be gathered and carried away.

EVERY ONE CAN HELP IN
SWAT THE FLY CAMPAIGN

EVERY one should exert himself and help in these anti-fly campaigns. Start by keeping flies out of the homes. Inspect every nook and corner in the house and make it a point to see that everything is clean. The kitchen should be kept scrupulously clean; and the result will be fewer flies and less disease.

This inspection should take place once a week. Every Sunday morning English ships are carefully examined by the captains and other officers. If this were done in every household there would be better health for all.

There should be an organization against these insects, and this could be accomplished if people would inform their neighbors of the danger of houseflies. It is also essential that children should know the danger of flies and how to guard against it. Children should be taught by their teachers the importance of a clean school. Much illness will be prevented, doctors' bills will be reduced, the health of all improved, if homes are kept sweet and clean.

Something About Coats and Suits
that Only One Store Can Say

HOW can a woman be sure of her Spring Suit or Coat? Confident as to its style and secure as to its worthiness and service?

Where is she to turn: on whom is she to depend? The average dealer is sincere enough in intent, but his stock represents a dozen different makers, with no fixed standard of tailoring.

Isn't it astonishing that women will go on season after season buying suits and coats of uncertain origin?

What can women expect of garments when they do not know anything about the Maker's name or responsibility?

Is there a Maker's name that means everything a woman would like to have in the quality of her Coat or Suit?

We can tell you of one Maker, but only a single store in this Community can show you the garments this concern produces.

This Maker—The H. Black Company of New York and Cleveland.

Nearly every woman in America knows its famous Wooltex line of Young Women's Coats and Suits.

Did it ever occur to you what this Wooltex concern has done for the women of America?

It is the originator of the Young Women's style idea as applied to Coats and Suits for women of all ages.

It pioneered the styling of women's garments from information gathered at the centers of Fashion.

It was the first House to recognize that style and good appearance are dependent for permanence on the unseen merits of good workmanship.

It set standards of finish and tailoring that have never been equaled in America.

Even in the dark ages of the garment business it originated the all-pure-wool and all-pure-silk policy.

In many respects it stands alone today in its principles and quality standards.

And only one store in your city can offer you Coats and Suits made by The H. Black Company.

You will find Suits at $25 to $65—especially attractive models from $25 to $45, and Coats from $16.50 to $75—exceptional selections at $16.50, $20, $25 and $35.

SPRING CLEAN-UP.

Efforts are being made in many places to arouse people to the waste paper nuisance. Some towns have their appearance simply ruined by the waste paper floating about the streets. Residences may be handsome, and home grounds well kept up. But if people will strew litter about the streets and if no one picks it up, those towns are bound to look like a pig pen. The streets of Newark are in a disgraceful condition much of the time, due in part at least to the carelessness and thoughtlessness of the people.

In many places the idea of setting waste paper receptacles about the streets has been tried. It was tried here in Newark a few years ago. It helps out to a certain extent. But the boys who sweep out stores are often detected putting the sweepings into these cans for street officials to carry off, which does not help make the streets any more cleanly. You can't change public habits simply by providing cans for refuse.

The street officials may be ever so active. But half a day after they make their rounds, if people continue to throw paper, bags, cigarette boxes, and other litter around the streets, the town will look just as bad.

The street is the common parlor and front door step for all of us. Comparatively few people will throw a mess of paper on their best carpet at home. Yet the same people will empty a bag of fruit, and then throw away the paper. They have a lordly feeling that some menial of the town will come along and pick it up. They can't spare the time to put the paper in their pocket and throw it into the waste box at home.

its most trying hour. We are too close to the world events of the last few years to appreciate them, to estimate justly the wonderful period in which we are living.

The President of the United States today called congress to meet in extra session on April 2, two weeks earlier than the time previously set for the opening of the extra session. The need is urgent. The time for action has come.

GERMANY'S CHALLENGE.

(Philadelphia Record.)
The destruction by German submarines of three American vessels, apparently with a considerable loss of life, is an act of such direct hostility that it is impossible to see how our Government can overlook it if it intends to back up its words with deeds. The United States has never recognized the right of Germany arbitrarily to stake off no small part of the Atlantic Ocean and say that any boat that ventures there does so at its peril. It has been the contention of our Government, relying upon international law, that our vessels should not thus be driven from the sea and that they have a perfect right to traverse the so-called barred zone, subject to the usual restrictions of warning, visitation and search. If they carry contraband they are, of course, liable to destruction, with the customary precautions for the safety of the crew and possible passengers.

JAPAN'S PLANS FOR CHINA.

(Chicago Tribune.)
Japan's enthusiasm about making China an ally of the entente is not based on expectation of military aid against Germany. China has not any organized military strength; it has not enough capital for its own uses, and above all China is not in the least interested in the war. The officials are, perhaps, China is not. Nor can it be urged that China as a neutral offers harbor to dangerous German intrigue. Of course, there is German intrigue in China, but it is not dangerous. Several expeditions headed for India have been intercepted, and German propaganda in the native press bore almost no fruit.

individual gifts is the extent and variety of the Foundation's smaller appropriations in aid of charitable, religious and social organizations and societies. These range from $500 for New York's Community Chorus, $800 for the Public-Schools Athletic League and $1,000 for the People's Institute, to $5,000 for a Syrian college, $9,500 for the Boy Scouts, $25,000 for the New York School of Applied Design for Women and larger sums for foreign missions and Young Men's Christian Associations. Its bounties reach literally from the Bowery to Belgium and from China to Palisades Park, and comprehend an immense amount of valuable aid to struggling institutions and organizations.

Some where in this large use of incorporated wealth for education and research and uplift there is a "menace" of some sinister kind, as the public is periodically informed by critics of the Foundation. But if this is a corrupt utilization of riches it is regrettable that there are not more examples of it.

GARDENING WORK BY SCHOOLS PROMISES SPLENDID RESULTS

A brief meeting of the school board was held last evening with Vice President J. M. Mitchell presiding. Clerk Ben Montgomery and W. C. Christian were the other members present. Bills were allowed and the pay roll for March was also approved.

A discussion followed in connection with the summer gardening work, in which the board has been considerably interested. Superintendent Wilson Hawkes addressed the members, pointing out that the school that they have six large plots in various sections of the city, but that the children were being trained to also take an interest in the work at home, and plant gardens in all available ground.

Supt. Hawkins also stated that Arbor Day, Friday, April 13, would be observed by the schools. Cards have been distributed to all pupils, stating that a tree sale would take place at the Central school building in West Church street on Arbor day and that fine hardy maple trees, from eight to twelve feet in height could be secured at cost, 25 cents. They hope in this manner to have the parents become sufficiently interested to purchase four or five hundred trees and thus assist in the beautification of the city. These same trees ordinarily would cost from $1 to $1.75.

Principal O. J. Barnes next addressed the board and told of a plan by which the high school teachers and pupils expect to improve the lawn. A landscape gardener will be employed and the grounds will be converted into a beauty spot, in fact when completed it will be the equal of any in the state, with grounds of similar size. It will take several years to complete the work, which will be started this year.

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]
Granville, O., March 21.—In the municipal building Tuesday evening, the Granville Chamber of Commerce, or the Greater Granville club, assembled to discuss ways and means to several desirable ends. Postmaster John Geach, president of the organization was in the chair and the meeting was marked by great enthusiasm. The matter of the chauntology in connection with the Baptist assembly to be held in Granville next summer was discussed and a large committee was named to sell the tickets. This committee was subdivided into groups of three who will thoroughly canvass the four sections of the village. With-out solicitation, 91 tickets were sold at the meeting. President Clark W. Chamberlain spoke of the plan of the Denison trustees to open a tunnel through Prospect hill, leading from Main street directly to the new athletic fields. The plans call for a wide plaza at the head of Main street with a new drive sweeping around the hill to the right. About 200 feet inside the tunnel an electric elevator will be run to the top of the hill, where passengers will have a few moments' walk to reach the new auditorium and building which may be devoted to the various women's clubs. In co-operation with these plans the president asked that Main street north be abandoned in order that the University may carry out the various plans. The Secretary, L. A. Austin has instructed to convey to council the recommendation of the club that this be done. It was then voted to write the United Commercial Travelers which convenes in Newark in June to come to Granville on June 8 and a committee will be named which shall plan for the entertainment of the visitors. The club then unanimously voted a sum of $50 to the township for the Boys' Corn Contest, under the auspices of the State Board of Agriculture. A second prize will be offered by the club to be under its own direction. There was free discussion and a good many eloquent speeches were enjoyed.

The meeting of the A. F. F. W. yesterday was well attended as usual, and much work was accomplished. A number of articles made at home were sent in, making a nice stock of completed garments. At the business meeting it was decided that next Tuesday's meeting is to be in the nature of a semi-annual with reports from all committees. A noon luncheon will be given and every one is urged to come. Miss Jennie Roe handed in her resignation as head of the Ways and Means committee, and Mrs. August Odebrecht was elected to the position. Several French communications were translated as read by Miss Marian Franklin. The French report of what the United States has done was given, and "A Message to America" written by Alan Secargy an American who gave his life fighting for France was also read by Miss Franklin.

Mrs. Clara M. Ogden has as house guests her daughter, Mrs. Warren Morris of Cleveland and Miss Sarah Hayden former head of the art department in Nebraska State University. Mrs. Morris will remain for two or three weeks.

Louis Frederick of Benton Harbor, Mich., and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Little of Hope, Kansas, who accompanied the body of Mrs. Anna Lou Frederick yesterday, arrived and said it in its last resting place in Maple Grove cemetery, left this morning for Chicago. The twenty-four hours of their stay were spent among old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deming, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chrysler.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deming motored to Columbus this morning. They were accompanied by their house guests, Mrs. Harry Little and her brother, Mr. Louis Frederick, who there took the train for Chicago.

Miss Bessie Larkin of Newark, was the guest of Mrs. Charles B. White, today.

Mrs. George Walker of Cincinnati

who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Williams for ten days, left at noon for her home.

Joy Cometh In the Morning

An Easter Poem
By ADA MELVILLE SHAW

I buried my bulbs in the garden—
'Twas night of the year.
The sky was o'ershadowed with weeping;
The garden was drear.
I gave the brown bulbs to earth's keeping
And left them there somberly sleeping
Till day should appear.

The cold rain beat down on my garden.
Ah, pitiless rain!
My bulbs—would they perish ere waking,
My planting in vain?
The tempest swept on without breaking;
My faith for fair flowers was shaking.
I wept in my pain.

Gray dawn slowly crept o'er my garden;
I sought it with sighs.
Lo, there through the soft mold appearing,
Glad sight for sad eyes,
Green life to the daylight uprearing!

O foolish heart, what of thy fearing,
Thy faithless surmise?
When springtime was warm in thy gardens,
What splendor was there!

700 VOLUNTEER FOR BROMLEY CHORUS; BUILDING PLANNED

The evangelistic commission for the Bromley campaign met at the Y. M. C. A. last night and heard the reports of the various committee chairmen as to the work that is now being done. Every committee had its work up to the standard as far as instruction had been received.

Several of the committee had record breaking reports. Among them was the report of Mrs. Chandler Tucker, chairman of music committee and that of the prayer meeting committee, Robert Northey. The various churches had reported members of the chorus as follows:

First Presbyterian, 105; First M. E., 100, Plymouth Congregational, 75, Central Church of Christ, 64, East M. E., 60, Baptist, 45, East United Brethren, 65, North Newark Christian Union, 40, Woodside Presbyterian, 40, Pine St. Christian Union, 30, West End Church of Christ, 30, Neal Avenue M. Every Day Etiquette

"Will you please tell me how I should sign my name, as I am married, have some property and do some legal business?" asked Mrs. Modernwoman.

"You should sign your name as 'Mary Anna White.' In concluding a business communication you may write your married title in brackets under your name, if you like," said her uncle.

Walk For Health.

A state board of health advises: "Take time to walk—or make time to walk. The pernicious habit of hopping on a trolley car to go a block or two robs many of the necessary health preserving exercise they should have. Walk for health!"

The recommendation is sound, but why should those who ride in automobiles be left out? The inveterate users of motorcars need to be told to walk more quite as much as the rest of us. Nowhere is the riding habit easier to acquire than where an automobile is at hand and call. Even the workers who deem the trolley car a necessity would often be advantaged by keeping their nickels in their own pockets and thereby inviting more physical and mental vigor. We are all sinners when it comes to the failure to keep in touch with the open—Springfield Republican.

+ Waste Paper.—This should be + kept from rubbish. Always keep + it dry. Put it in burlap bags or + tie it up in bundles. If kept in + the basement it should never be + near the furnace nor under the + stairs.
+ Vacant Lots.—The owners of + vacant lots are responsible for + keeping them clean. Do not + throw your rubbish or garbage + in these lots. It is not good citi- + zenship and is a menace to your + health. Try to get them cleaned + up and see if you can put in a + garden.

You Can Make Excellent Cake with Fewer Eggs

Just use an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.
This applies equally well to nearly all baked foods. Try the following recipe according to the new way:

CREAM LAYER CAKE

Old Way	New Way
1 cup sugar	1 cup sugar
1/2 cup milk	1 cup milk
2 cups flour	2 cups flour
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder	4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
3 EGGS	1 EGG
1/2 cup shortening	2 tablespoons shortening
1 teaspoon flavoring	1 teaspoon flavoring

Makes 1 Large 2-Layer Cake

DIRECTIONS—Cream the sugar and shortening together, then mix in the egg. After adding the flour and Royal Baking Powder together two or three times, add it all to the mixture. Gradually add the milk and beat with spoon until you have a smooth pour batter. Add the flavoring. Pour into greased layer cake tins and bake in a moderately hot oven for twenty minutes. This cake is best baked in two layers. Put together with cream filling and spread with white icing.

Nerves and Moods.
It is absurd, and very uncomfortable for other persons to indulge publicly in moods. Almost every woman has moments when she could scream or weep from sheer irritability and will power to control these moments should be exercised with extreme determination.

It is very necessary to learn how to rest properly. Do not think that chance of occupation is rest for there is no greater delusion. To acquire perfect rest, settle yourself in a corner, arrange your feet and arms, and indeed, your whole body, until you feel comfortable from head to foot.

Sit in this position for five minutes, motionless. Don't do anything but take long, chest developing easy breaths. Whether you close the eyes or leave them open makes no difference, but don't move. At the end of five minutes you will feel very much rested. If possible take these rest periods two or three times a day. At any rate force yourself to observe the treatment at least once a day. You will be surprised at the amount of good it will accomplish.

The nervous woman who feels inclined to scream if the doors bang or anyone drops anything; the girl who is not cross in the least, although all her family thinks she is, but who cannot help being irritable needs ten minutes of absolute relaxation at least once a day in a quiet darkened room. She is simply overworked and run down—a victim of nerves.

On nervous days, when you feel like flying out of the window from sheer irritability, stand erect, hands clasped in front and head bowed, and shoulders until the head is very erect, and while inhaling deeply through the nostrils, center the thoughts on perfect peace. This exercise will, in a few minutes, cause the nervous feeling to completely subside and incidentally, is an excellent way of reducing a double chin.

Our Boys and Girls

What most children need is more fancy, more poetry, more food for imagination. Every day the need becomes more apparent. Magazines, moving picture the average juvenile books, the talk of adults about them, everything tends to foster children's thoughts to the world of here-and-now and has to be the world we know with our five senses.

But shall they therefore lose their rightful inheritance in that other realm of loveliness, the world of yesterday and tomorrow, or faraway or maybe? This realm is intended to be loaned to them indefinitely, prefigured in the glory of the gleam of the rainbow prism.

Bloobs—"I had my first experience driving an automobile yesterday." Bloobs—"Did you run across anyone you knew?" Bloobs—"No; I bumped several, but they were all strangers."

This Sturdy Youngster Keeps a "Bodyguard" on Hand.

CHAS. MASTER HURLEY, LA PORTE, IND.

POSTS GUARD AT BEDTIME.
And Mother Sleeps Without Fear of Hearing that Awful Brassy Choking Cough.

This fine boy is Master Charles Kern, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hurley, 1026 Madison St., La Porte, Ind. Charles has a little "Bodyguard" who lives in a little blue jar, and protects him against croup, colds, sore throat, bronchitis—in fact all kinds of gold troubles.

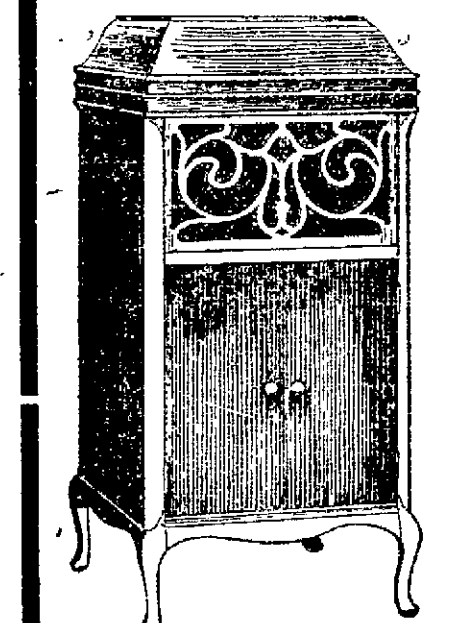

The name of this "Bodyguard" is Vick's VapoRub Salve, and the best thing about him is that he doesn't have to be swallowed. To "post the guard," Charles' mother just applies VapoRub externally and covers with a warm flannel cloth. Quick relief comes by absorption through the skin and by inhalation as a vapor.

"We always try to keep VapoRub in the house," writes Mrs. Hurley, "as the children are very susceptible to croup. By rubbing it on their throats and chests they are soon relieved. My husband and I used VapoRub when we had pleurisy and our pains went almost immediately."

WELCOME SIGN TO BE LIGHTED FOR DRESS-UP OPENING

"Newark Welcomes You" will be flashed for the first time from the new electric sign on the Newark Trust building Friday night, when the display windows of more than 100 leading stores are unveiled and the spring "Dress-up" formally will be ushered in.

The sign has been rebuilt and the words, "Trade in Newark," have been replaced by the new welcome phrase, which has a true community meaning, typical of the new spirit which is prevailing among Newark people and its commercial and civic institutions. The sign now faces the south and is particularly visible to the trains which pass through the city and to visitors as they alight therefrom. It was decided not to turn the current on until Newark's stores were in gala attire and the mercantile demonstration was in progress.

The advertising committee is urging citizens generally to join in this dress-up movement. They can help by decorating their homes and their business places with national emblems. There never was a time in the history of our country when such an evidence of loyalty was more appropos.

The various committees in charge of the demonstration met yesterday at the chamber headquarters and made additional arrangements for its success in the way of illuminations, bands, parades, and other features which will not be divulged in advance.

A large attendance from the rural districts is expected. Notices have been inserted in the country press and the advertising car, a new 1917 Buick model from the Spillman garage, will cover many miles carrying the invitation to the event to the small towns and residents of the country.

Store windows will be blanketed all Friday to give the window trimmers and decorators ample time to make the most artistic displays. That night the old town will be ablaze with colored lights, and the sheen of brilliant fabrics and latest modes. Thousands will be out to herald the change from dull winter to the chrysalis of spring.

It brings new activity to the liver, stomach and bowels in a short time, thus causing indigestion, flatulence and constipation to disappear.

It cleans the tiny blood vessels of the skin, bringing with it fresh vitalized blood; and abiding faith in its wonderful cleansing power has come to thousands, when pimples, boils, carbuncles, rash, eczema, acne and other skin troubles dried up and disappeared.

Good blood means good health; good health means strong men and women, full of vigor and ambition, with minds alert and muscles ever willing.

Any medicine dealer will supply you with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in either liquid or tablet form. Remember it is not a patent medicine for its ingredients are printed on the wrapper. It's a pure glyceric extract of roots, made without alcohol.

What Our Neighbors Say.

Mansfield, Ohio.—"I am glad to endorse and recommend Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery. I used it for a 'toning-up' medicine and it was satisfactory. It increased my appetite and straightened me up every way. It is a good builder and tonic."—Mr. W. T. Cookston, 151 South Foster Street.

A new man or "new woman" can be made out of one that is "used-up," bilious and dyspeptic. It is done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It starts the torpid liver into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, cleanses, repairs, and strengthens the system, and restores health and vigor.

As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, and builds up flesh and strength.

City Physicians Explain Why They Prescribe Nuxated Iron To Make Beautiful, Healthy Women And Strong, Vigorous Men

NOW BEING USED BY OVER THREE MILLION PEOPLE ANNUALLY

Quickly transforms the flabby flesh, toneless tissues, and pallid cheeks of weak, anemic men and women into a perfect glow of health and beauty—often increases the strength of delicate, nervous, run-down folks 200 per cent. in two weeks' time.

New York, N. Y.—It is conservatively estimated that over three million people annually in this country alone are taking Nuxated Iron. Such astonishing results have been reported from its use both by doctors and laymen, that a number of physicians in various parts of the country have been asked to explain why they prescribe it so extensively, and what it apparently produces so much better results than were obtained from the old forms of iron—genuine iron.

Extracts from some of the letters received are given below:

CRISIS OF WOMAN'S LIFE

Change Safely Passed by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wagoner, Okla.—"I never got tired of praising Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because during Change of Life I was in bed two years and had two operations, but all the doctors and operations did me no good, and I would have been in my grave today had it not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which brought me out of it all right, so I am now well and do all my housework, besides working in my garden. Several of my neighbors have got well by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." Mrs. Viola Fincal, Wagoner, Okla.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has carried many women safely through the crisis.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt, sure relief. It does not blister.

As first aid and a certain remedy. Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready for instant use. It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!
People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Alkali Makes Soap Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulctified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

THE THEATRES

AUDITORIUM

"The Black Butterfly."
The Auditorium held good crowds yesterday and both the Style Show and Madame Petrova came in for praise. Mme. Petrova, the noted Metro star, is well known in Newark, having married Dr. Stewart of this county. In "The Black Butterfly" picture she will be seen today for the last time; she is supported by an able and notable cast of prominent artists.

Her leading man again is Mahlon Hamilton, whose clean-cut presence and hearty acting has endeared him to the hearts of all patrons of Metro pictures. This evening actor plays the part of Alan Hall, opposite Mme. Petrova.

Edward Brennan is one of the best known actors appearing in Metro wonderplays. He is his best in roles calling for distinction of personal appearance and a knowledge of the ways of all strata of society. Such a part he has in Lord Brailin in "The Black Butterfly," and he makes the most of it. Another man familiar with social usage all over the world is Count Levenhaupt, a member of the nobility who has the part of Lachaise, an officer in the French army.

Violet Reed's graceful presence adds charm to the role of Lady Constance Brailin, and Pretty Evelyn Dumo is seen as the French maid, 'Ciel. In this impressive story of Europe of the present day.

"The Blue Paradise."

Paul Nicholson, who will be seen here in the leading role of "Rudolph Stoecker," in the reigning musical success, "The Blue Paradise," at the Auditorium tomorrow is one of the most talented and popular of the younger generation of stage favorites. He has been connected with many of the most memorable successes of recent seasons and is one of the remarkably small group of actors who have been equally successful in both musical and dramatic offerings.

His present role in "The Blue Paradise" is the most congenial he has yet enjoyed. It also marks his return to the management of the Messrs. Shubert, under whose direction this charming Viennese operetta is being presented, following its record run of an entire calendar year at the Casino theatre, New York.

Mr. Nicholson was one of the first stars sent forth under the Shubert banner. Hoyt's comedy, "A Stranger in New York," was the vehicle, and this venture proved the foundation to the prominence this progressive managerial firm has since come to command in the theatrical world.

Mr. Nicholson appeared in comedy parts for five consecutive seasons on Broadway. He created the role of the Hebrew in the Alice Nielson Opera Company's production of "The Fortune Teller," and in "The Bell of Bohemia," at the Casino. He was Algy Cuffs, the part Richard Carlo afterward played in London. Some of his other notable personal successes.

Mr. Nicholson is a native New Yorker. His father, the late Paul Nicholson, was one of the founders of the New York Press Club and was the first musical and dramatic critic of the New York World.

June On Broad Line.

June Caprice, the little star of William Fox's "A Child of the Wild," has often wondered how it felt to stand on a broadline. She experienced the thrills of this method of feeling while on her way home from Tennessee where the exterior of her new picture were taken.

June was very tired. Consequently the porter's "last call for breakfast" made no impression on her.

When she did wake up and was ready for breakfast she encountered a line reaching through a couple of cars into the diner. June took her stand on the end of the line. Her wait satisfied for all time her curiosity about breadlines.

Miss Caprice together with Charlie Chaplin in "The Floorwalker" will be the Auditorium feature at the Auditorium Saturday.

"Bill" Hart a Lariat Expert.

William S. Hart found occasion to rejoice over the fact that he has practiced long and faithfully with the lariat when he was filming "Truthful Tulliver," the Triangle-Kay Bee play by J. G. Hawks, in which he is starred. In this drama, which concerns the adventures of a newspaper editor in a lawless Arizona mining town, he is called upon to catch two men at once in the loop of his lariat while riding a horse.

Hart is the Sunday attraction at the Auditorium, together with a Keystone comedy and a class singer, who will be heard in latest song hits.

one of the foremost of musical comedy prima donnas and her singing the star role furnishes one of the musical treats of the season. Miss Darley owes her popularity not alone to her brilliant voice but also to her vivid impersonation of whatever role is assigned her.

Stop! Look! Listen!

During the summer of about seven years ago, a young man of diminutive stature and swarthy complexion haunted the seemingly inaccessible sanctum of a well-known music publisher with a certain song. With the manuscript in hand stained by usage, he at last met the big publisher. The latter good-naturedly confronted the young man, glanced copiously over the M. S. at once gave his official endorsement and bought the song, paying the musician sum of $25. The song, entitled "Dorando" because a success over night and forthwith placed the swarthy looking one in the limelight of approaching fame. The young composer was none other than that genius of song and syncopated rhythm, Irving Berlin, whose latest and wildest biggest success "Stop! Look! Listen!" is to be the attraction at the Auditorium theatre, next Tuesday night. When this most enjoyable of modern musical comedies was first presented by Charles Dillingham it met with immediate favor and afterwards had a vogue that endured for a whole year, both in New York and Boston. The cast numbers fully sixty competent and capable artists. The action is of the speedy and peppery kind with enough laughter, hilarity and fun to make the most saturnine disposition eschew the chains of melancholy and defy the Fates with a smile of contentment and unremitting satisfaction. We forgot to mention that beauty has a solid inning and that the girls make their good looks count, in that they combine grace in all that they say and do.

"A World of Pleasure." "A World of Pleasure" character-is the most gorgeous of these huge spectacles ever attempted. Of course, one never looks for any plot in these big revues, for the real enjoyment after all, comes from the pleasing music, the pretty girls and the excellence of the company. In this patrons of "A World of Pleasure" will not be disappointed.

"Very Good Eddie." The New York critics say "Very Good Eddie" is a delight from start to finish. This droll and dainty musical comedy that has just finished playing over one year at the Princess theatre, New York, will appear at the Auditorium, April 8.

GRAND. Her Life and His. Here is a picture which has the approval of organizations interested in social improvement and prison reform. To the man who wanted to die, the girl who wanted to live makes a proposition—to use his fortune to better prison conditions and lend those with a prison record a helping hand. She offers her own intimate knowledge as her half of the partnership. He accepts and the plan proves so successful that Howard is appointed warden of a large prison. But matters sail along too smoothly and cleanly to suit the corrupt political ring and they start a black-mailing scheme against Howard. How he is tricked into a scandal and how Mary matches her wits with the adventuress who lures him to her apartment, makes a thrilling story that moves fast and surely to a strong climax. At the Grand on Thursday.

ALHAMBRA. Tonight Only. An Indian maiden worships a statue as her god. She falls in love with a white man and to save him she must destroy the statue. What does she do?

This conflict between race and love forms one of the dramatic features of "The Red Woman," the highly dramatic new World Picture Brady-Made in which Miss Gail Kane is the star. The Alhambra theatre will have the pleasure of presenting it to its patrons tonight.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Memories of Sarah Bernhardt were rife at the Famous Players studio not long ago when Marguerite Clark appeared in several scenes for "The Fortunes of Fifi" wearing the same Roman costume which she had worn two years ago when she appeared on the stage of the Palace theatre in New York with Mme. Bernhardt.

When "The Fortunes of Fifi," which is the Paramount picture at the Alhambra theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, was being staged, it was found that Miss Clark was to play a Roman girl in a play within the play. Immediately recalling the "Bernhardt" costume, Miss Clark had her maid unpack it and it was donned for the first time since it was worn.

GEM. Friday. Bluebird Photoplays, Inc., has accomplished something for the children who form so large a part of the millions who are "picture fans" in creating a play with a child as its star and having in the Company more than a score of boys and girls who take an important part in the proceedings. "Gloriana" is the title of the children's Bluebird, the star is little Zoe Rae and it will be the attraction at the Gem theatre on Friday when "Bluebird Day" again comes 'round.

He was on his way home from a business trip down the coast. Like many others who come to Florida with the pre-conceived idea that it is a land of swamps and alligators, Mr. Howell changed his notions concerning the state and stayed before leaving, that this is the most interesting and beautiful country he had ever seen. He says he will return and try to induce others to do likewise.—Melbourne Times.

STOCKS GAIN WHEN EXTRA SESSION IS KNOWN ON WALL ST.

New York, March 21.—President Wilson's call for an extra session of congress a fortnight in advance of the date originally named was received in Wall street shortly before the opening of the stock market and met with general approval. First prices were firm to strong, war shares rising 1 to 3 points. U. S. Steel was the conspicuous feature, however, its first offering comprising 25,000 shares at 117 1/4 to 117 3/4, an extreme gain of three quarters of a point.

Shipments also displayed marked strength but rails were little changed except for a three point rise in seaboard air line preferred.

Recessions of 1 to 2 points caused some confusion in the first half hour with irregularity resulting from profit-taking as well as short selling by traders who took the ground that latest developments might precipitate liquidation by investors.

Munitions, marines and equipments led the decline just as they had been foremost in the early advance and United States steel registered an extreme loss of 1 1/8 points. Fresh buying, however, set in at the lower levels and by 11 o'clock the market was again headed upward. Sales of the first hour approximated 500,000 shares.

U-BOAT BLOCKADE TAKES 39 MILLION FROM OUR EXPORTS

New York, March 21.—During Germany's first month of submarine blockade around England and Scotland and Ireland, America's export trade through New York to those countries dropped $39,000,000 as compared with that in February of 1916, according to figures made public here today by the collector of customs. In February of last year this trade aggregated $91,832,000. Last month the total was $52,057,000. The comparative figures of exports to all of Europe show an increase of about $1,072,000. Exports through New York to all foreign countries last month totaled $222,352,000, an increase of nearly $8,694,000 as compared with the previous February. Trade with Russia increased about 250 per cent.

RECEIVE BIDS FOR U-BOAT CHASERS; WILL RUSH WORK

Washington, March 21.—Bids for the first lot of 110-foot wooden hull submarine chasers and coast patrol boats were received at the navy department today from private builders along the Atlantic coast. Proposals from private yards in other parts of the country will be received a week from today.

Orders for 64 boats already have been placed with the New York and New Orleans navy yards at $30,000 for boats without engines. The department has about completed arrangements with an engine building company which will insure the prompt delivery of 200 or more motors.

Efforts to speed up aeroplane construction will be made by both the army and the navy. Builders are having difficulty in making deliveries of the hundreds of machines already ordered. Some orders are now many months overdue, despite the fact that the builder's designs have been accepted without question.

DRUG CRAZED NEGRO KILLS POLICE CHIEF IN PISTOL BATTLE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Vancouver, B. C., March 21.—Three persons are dead today as the result of a shotgun and revolver fight last night between the police and a man they sought to arrest. The dead:

Chief of Police Malcolm B. MacLennan, George Rolph, 9 years old, Robert Tait, negro.

Tait, said to have been a drug addict, opened fire from a window on Chief MacLennan and a police squad as they approached a lodging house whose proprietor had telephoned that Tait had assaulted him. Tait's first shot killed the Rolph boy.

The police squad rushed the house but was driven off. Chief MacLennan having fallen just inside the door.

Two hours later, when the police effected entrance, MacLennan was found dead, his head shattered by bullets. The negro also was dead, whether from the attackers' bullets or from a self inflicted wound could not be ascertained. Two policemen suffered wounds about the head. Tait was armed with a shotgun and automatic pistol.

Tait's wife, was found in the house, injured and taken into custody. She is held on a charge of murder.

STYLE SHOW DRAWS CROWD; STORES HERE FURNISH COSTUMES

Following the showing of the picture at the theatre two displays of women's wear were made. Four models, attractive young women from New York, promenaded the stage. Showing was made of charming afternoon frocks, in silk and Georgette crepe, the new coats with the huge collars and in the favored colors, attractive jacket suits and evening gowns. With the outfits were worn stunning hats ranging from the saucy sport styles to picture hats for formal dress. CANNOT WORK OR PLAY

When you are run down in health so that it impairs the efficiency of your work as well as your power to enjoy the pleasures of life it is time that you gave Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. The condition that doctors describe as general debility when they describe it at all is outside of the experience of most physicians until the blood has become so impoverished that it can be called anemia. Unless this condition of bloodlessness has been reached, loss of appetite, constipation, lack of ambition and animation. If you are well-to-do your physician will probably advise a change of climate. If not, he will tell you there is nothing much the matter with you. He means that there is no organic trouble.

But the blood is thin and the whole system lacks tone. The blood goes everywhere, practically, and improving the quality of the blood by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, tones up the whole body, improves the appetite, quickens the step and puts a new punch in life generally.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by your own druggist or will be sent direct by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at fifty cents a box.

TRAINING STUNTS IN GYMNASIUM ARE OPEN TO PUBLIC

With the public work out promised wrestling fans for tonight by Paul Bowser and Mike Yokel, interest in the approaching engagement is growing. For an hour tonight, beginning at 7 o'clock Bowser will give the fans an opportunity to see him in his training stunts in the gymnasium over the Music Hall. At 8 o'clock, Yokel and his wrestling partner will go to the mat for an hour's work to keep him in condition for the match at the Auditorium next Friday night.

Both the principals in the match are anxious to have the fans see the training work. No admission fee is charged.

Yokel wants to be in extra good condition for this week's match as he feels that he has his reputation to retrieve. In past years he has never recognized Bowser as a contender in the middleweight class and had at various times refused him a match. To be thrown by the man he had ignored was a little more than he bargained for.

Bowser is none the less anxious to present his best offense and defense for he has no notion of letting Yokel copy the prize.

With the physical culture demonstration by Cora Livingston and Grace Brady as the headliners in the preliminary card, unusual interest is attached to this part of the entertainment. Both women are said to be unusually clever in the art and will put up a good exhibition.

Other events will be arranged to precede the main show.

BOWLING TEAMS SLOW IN TUESDAY'S PROGRAM

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 21.—Teams from various parts of the country are scheduled to appear in the five-man contest of the American Bowling Congress tournament here tonight and their conceded strength promises some big figures. Louis Franz Ponies of Cleveland, are the center of attraction on the late shift. There will be no Chicago teams in action tonight.

Work in minor events today will be confined almost exclusively to Detroit men.

Yesterday's results were the slowest of any day since the real stars began to appear.

The leaders in the different events are the Birk brothers of Chicago, in the fives with 3061; Frank McCaughan and Henry Peachey, Indianapolis, in the doubles with 1814, and Otto Kellusch, Rochester, in the singles with 698.

GRANVILLE PASTOR AT EAST MAIN ST. CHURCH

The Rev. Otto Giesen, pastor of the Methodist church in Granville, who delighted the men and boys with an interesting and helpful "chalk talk" last week will preach at the East Main Street M. E. church tonight. A conference of workers is called to meet at the close of the service. The Rev. J. W. Atkinson, pastor of the Neal Avenue M. E. church of this city will preach on Thursday evening. These are "drill nights" in preparation for the coming tabernacle campaign.

ST. QUENTIN IS WITHIN REACH OF THE ALLIES

severely with conflicting reports as to its results.

Today's French official reports show that General Nivelle's armies in their advance towards the Hindenburg line are taking no chances at any return thrust by the Germans. Each position occupied is being thoroughly organized. Details of the advance toward its southern limits show the French to have reached the line of the Ailette river, which runs some ten miles west of Laon, and reveals the capture of ten more villages on both sides of the Laon road.

Important reports come from the northern end of the Franco-Belgian front indicating that the Germans may be preparing also for retirement north of Arras well along the line into Belgian territory. Amsterdam dispatches report German activity there similar to that which preceded the German retreat further down the line.

Excellent news for the entente came to hand today from Persia whence the Russians moving southwest from Sakaz have crossed the border into Mesopotamia. They are thus drawing appreciably closer to the line of the Tigris, up which the Turks driven by the British from Baghdad, are retreating towards Mosul.

One feature of the Russian report may be counted adverse to the entente prospects. The advent of the bad weather season is announced. This may militate against progress from now on of such rapidity as that which has characterized the Russian thrust thus far.

In connection with the news from the Mesopotamian front, the announcement from London that another important Christian in Persia has been against the Turks may be considered significant, as indicating the peril to the Turks from defections among their own subjects. It is also announced that the Turkish force near Aden, in southern Arabia, has been isolated from Turkish headquarters.
